ATTACK ON B.C. POLICE COLLAPSES

Booley Ignorant of Facts in North Vancouver Charges,
Bryan Shows

Dismissal of Officer Demanded By Residents, He Says, Baring Record

Conservative attacks on the administration of the Provincial Police came to a sudden end yesterday after listening to the assault of R. H. Booley, Opposition leader, on the alleged mismanagement of police work in his riding, J. M.
Bryan, Liberal of North Vancouver, fired by actual documents that Mr.
Booley was entirely out of his facts.
While the Opposition leader had criticized the dismissal of Provincial Police constable King in North Vancouver, Bryan showed that the man's removal had been demanded by the people of the district and that his record was a sorry one indeed.

As Mr. Booley made a big issue of the North Vancouver case and attempted to discredit Brig-General V.
V. Oudom for failing to defend the dismissed constable, Mr. Bryan answered this attack in detail with records to support his views.

DETAILS FOLLOWS
"I asked the leader of the Opposition
if he had made any investigation, but his reply was in the negative," said Mr. Bryan. "I have the record of this man, not only as regards the South African War, but since he came to America, and the details are too much to read to the House. But I have the record here, for any member

WILL NOT DROP TAX ON SALES OF RESOURCES

Mining Men Satisfied Now,
Premier Finds; Timbermen
Raise Objections

After a series of conferences between owners of mineral and timber properties in British Columbia, Premier Maclean announced today that the Government had no intention of abandoning its new tax on profits made in the sale of such properties. The plans announced in the budget for the collection of the levy through the adjustment of depletion allowances will stand, he said.

Mining men who conferred at length with officials of the Taxation Department have left here satisfied with the so-called "unearned increment" tax, the Premier said. They objected to the levy at the outset, but these objections have been removed by the budget plans for adjusting depletion allowances, he explained.

Leading timbermen met the Premier today and registered objections to the taxation proposals. These objections are under consideration now.

EFFORT TO SAVE CONVICTED WOMAN

Appeal to Minister of Justice at Ottawa For Mrs. Doris McDonald

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—The Ottawa Journal on a news page today says:
"Contrary to previous reports, Doris McDonald, who was the wife of the late George McDonald, is under sentence of death for the murder of Adeline Bouchard, Montreal taxi driver, who has no living parents. This statement was made to the Journal early this morning by J. A. Legault, K.C., Montreal, counsel for the condemned couple, who arrived here last night to intercede with Hon.
Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, in an effort to obtain a reprieve."
Mr. Legault denied a Mrs. Snyder of Chicago, Ill., was the girl's mother.

APPEAL PLANS
"Their execution has been set for March 23 and Mr. Legault advised the Journal that should he make an appeal he would not do so before March 15, in order to gain as much time as possible."
According to Mr. Legault, Doris Mc-Donald is dying of tuberculosis and at present is in a very critical condition in the women's jail at Montreal.
Mrs. McDonald, only twenty years of age, formerly was a movie actress in New York.

seats to be filled in the Diet of Japan, the opposition party today had a lead of twelve.

independents five, and various other parties, ten.

Bear River Railway Construction Plans For 1928 Extended

CO-OPERATION IS STRESSED FOR GROWERS

Agriculturists Can Solve Problem By Working Together, Says F. M. Black

Stressing the need of co-operation for the solution of agricultural marketing problems, F. M. Black, chairman of the marketing control board under the B.C. Produce Marketing Act spoke at a luncheon meeting of the industrial group of the Chamber of Commerce today on the subject of "The Importance of Agricultural Development to General Industrial Progress."

Mr. Black illustrated his point by a comparison with the development on the prairies. It is possibly not realized in British Columbia what tremendous development is taking place in the central plains of Canada, he said.

During the lifetime of one man, the production of grain in the prairie province has grown from 15,000 bushels a year to something like 400,000,000 bushels. With this development seven or eight large cities of about 400,000 population have sprung up. Here the interdependence of agriculture and city and industrial life is fully realized.
If the crops are bad, the cities are dull.

On the coast however, where there is shipping, mining, etc., to keep things moving, the relationship is not so outstanding. Nevertheless, it still exists, and therefore is important to all those interested in the progress of the Province, said the speaker.

Mr. Black then outlined the growth of the powerful farmers' organizations on the prairies—the grain pools and United Grain Growers.

"Those who were regarded as 'mere' farmers have taken control of some of the largest enterprises of the time," he stated.

In this connection, the speaker referred particularly to the United Grain Growers.

New Motion On Budget in House

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—A sub-amendment to the budget was moved from the Progressive seats by B. W. Panasher, East Lambton, Ontario, this afternoon.
It expresses regret at the reduction in the income tax, declares the tariff changes are inadequate to effect any reduction which would be of any advantage to the consumers, and regrets the sales tax on the necessities of life is not yet eliminated.

B.C. BASIC OUTPUT DOUBLES IN DECADE

Production in the basic industries of British Columbia has doubled in the last ten years, the Legislature was informed by Hon. A. M.
Manson, Minister of Labor, in answer to questions by Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal of Vancouver. In 1918, the Minister said, total production in basic industries was valued at $124,539,997; in 1928, $229,199,999; in 1926, $250,720,160.
The number of industrial firms operating in the Province has more than doubled in the same time. In 1917 there were 4,002 firms and in 1927, 8,243. The payroll at the same time rose from $78,000,000 to $175-000,000.

toric Canadian songs were announced

O'Connor, veteran member of the British House of Commons, left London today for Southampton, from which port he will sail for New York. He is making the trip for his health. He is seventy-nine years of age.

Before leaving Mr. O'Connor said he still stood by his decision as censor in banning the film "Down," which depicts the career of Edith Cavell, British nurse, executed by the Germans in Belgium during the World War. He stated he had received thousands of letters approving his stand.

CANTON TROOPS EXECUTE MANY

Reported 1,700 Communists Captured February 20 Put to Death

Shanghai, Feb. 22.—Dispatches from Canton say 1,700 alleged communists, both men and women, have been executed by the Canton troops since they were captured east of the city February 20.

The Cantonese also captured 600 members of Giris' Communist Corps in the same area, but these have not been executed.

North of Canton 800 Reds were made prisoners and hundreds of rifles captured.

Hang Pui, widely known communist organizer in Fukien province, is stated to have been murdered by villagers in his native district who photographed the corpses and then cut it into ten pieces for general distribution. Part of it was sent to Canton for the purpose of discussing the matter.

The Central Bank of Canton has repudiated all notes issued prior to 1928 and is issuing $1,000,000 Mexican in new notes.

Belgium Seeks Increased Trade With This Country

nounced in the Senate.

MEXICAN DEBATE IN HOUSE BRIEF

Commons at Ottawa Decides Against Tabling of Correspondence

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Lively scenes were witnessed in the House this afternoon when a motion by T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto Northwest, for copies of correspondence and other communications regarding recent utterances of Medina Barron, Mexican Consul-General at Toronto, was lost on a division.

Mr. Church asked that all letters and telegrams between the Government or any persons be produced.

When the motion was put to the House by Speaker Lemieux, Mr. Church was the only member who supported it.

Expressing satisfaction that more had been heard concerning preventive measures and less of penalties at the present session of the commission, the Canadian delegate said it was the opinion of his Government that security could be more effectively advanced by disarmament than by increasing pledges of armed assistance.

Discussing the duties of League members, Dr. Riddell said the Canadian delegate had considered any increase in the obligations of members of the League should await progress in solution of the problem of the possible attitude of neutral states and non-members of the League.

Anti-Oriental Land Move Made In Port Coquitlam

Port Coquitlam, Feb. 22.—On motion of Alderman Robert Shearer and W. C.
Leacock, the city council unanimously passed a resolution "that no city land should be sold to Orientals." This refers to land that had reverted to the city for non-payment of taxes.

Mayor R. C. Galar declared the resolution did not go far enough; there being nothing to prevent a white man buying the land and selling it to an Oriental.

TWO LIQUOR VESSELS RACE AGAINST TIME

Hurrying to Land Cargoes at Vancouver Before Import Ban Comes

Ms. Pacific Reliance Has 24,000 Cases and Ss. Moerdyk Has 26,000 Cases

Vancouver, Feb. 22.—With a prize of $2,500,000 at stake, two vessels are dashing for the port of Vancouver at full speed. The Furman motorship Pacific Reliance and the steamship Moerdyk of the joint Holland-American-Royal Mail Steam Packet Line are competing against the time limit, February 23, set by the Government of Canada for importations of liquor to private bond in this country.

The Pacific Reliance has 24,000 cases of whisky and the Moerdyk 16,000 cases of champagne and 10,000 cases of whisky. Unless this liquor is unloaded and warehoused here one week from today the consignees will face a problem in disposing of it.

FOG NOT WANTED
It is believed the steamships will win the race unless fog should hold them back.

The Moerdyk, originally due here February 27, is speeding north under forced draught and will probably arrive February 25. Day and night gangs worked to unload her when she called at United States Pacific coast ports.

The Pacific Reliance is expected to arrive on February 27.

Second Chamber Of Nova Scotia Is Soon to Disappear

Halifax, Feb. 22.—The bill to abolish the Legislative Council, which has been a feature of all three sessions of the Nova Scotia Legislature since the advent of the Rhodes Government, made its way to the second reading in the Legislative Assembly when it was given reading by that body yesterday.

ruary 23, set by the Government of Canada for importations of liquor to private bond in this country.

The Pacific Reliance has 24,000 cases

cases of champagne and 10,000 cases
of whisky. Unless this liquor is un-

MAY SEEK TO PROVE MILK BILL ULTRA VIRES

Fraser Valley Men Will Take Action Says Jersey Breeder Official

Discussing the milk situation with a Times representative yesterday, one of the important Jersey breeders, officials was of the opinion that if the legislation of the Province, certain fractions of the Fraser Valley milk producers would take the matter up, if necessary legally, and have the bill proved ultra vires. If that were impossible, he thought, there would be so much dissatisfaction caused to the breeders of cows producing milk of the higher butter fat content that they would take action in such a manner that would very much embarrass the association.

He also felt that if the Fraser Valley men approached the matter with acceptable to all on account of his broadmindedness and fairness, and in that way everybody producing milk should get a satisfactory working arrangement.

"I cannot help but think that a legislation which forces growers to become members of such an organization and puts the whole of our agricultural producers under control, is going to do anything else but ruin our Province agriculture," he said.

"In San Francisco the Prune and Apriote Association, I believe, controls eighty-five to ninety per cent of the prune and apriote production in California. The members of this association found it greatly to their advantage to join. They were not forced in any way and the reason that they wished to join was on account of the splendid organization instituted by the heads. They found that they could get a much better price for their crop year in and year out by being members of the association, rather than being on the outside."

"Apart from this there were many other advantages that the members had, the non-members did not enjoy. In Washington and Oregon the voluntary associations have been very successful, and I cannot help but believe that our Government control association in British Columbia cannot possibly compete with properly run associations which are marketing their goods in the same world markets that we hope to enter."

If we are going to get trade it must be on a quality and quantity basis.

Quebec, Feb. 22.—A clause in the

OLD AGE PENSION LEVY IS PLANNED

Special Tax Manitoba Government's Scheme; Alberta
Delays Action

Winnipeg, Feb. 22.—Money for the payment of the old age pensions will be raised by a special levy on property taxation in the province, based on the equalized assessment, Premier John Bracken told the Manitoba Legislature yesterday when introducing the bill.
One-half of the total amount necessary to finance the scheme will be paid by the Federal Government, but the province will have to pay the other half, and in addition will have to bear the entire cost of administration, which will be placed in the hands of the Workmen's Compensation Board.

That there will be considerable criticism of this method of finding the money was indicated by J. T. Hain, K.C., and W. Sanford Evans, Conservatives, who protested strongly against the city and rural property holders being called to shoulder the entire burden.

The principle of the payment of pensions was warmly commended by representatives of all the groups in the House.

Mr. Bracken said he would welcome any alternative scheme for financing, and pointed out the province could not

Solo Journey of Bert Hinckler, Australian Aviator, De- clared One of Outstanding Feats of Skill and Endur- ance in International Aviation; Flies His Small Plane and Moves It on Ground Without Assistance.

Port Darwin, Australia, Feb. 22.
—Bert Hinckler, British flier, arrived here today from Bima, Sungawa, completing a flight in a small aeroplane from England in fifteen days. Making the flight alone, Hinckler came from England with clocklike regularity, stopping successfully at Rome, Malta, Bengali, Crenais, Torbruk, Tripoli, Hassah, Palestine, Beers, Iraq, Jask, Persia, Karachi, India, Calcutta, Rangoon, Burma, Singapore and Bina.

The most dangerous stretch was about 1,000 miles over the Timor Sea from Bima to Port Darwin, Northern Australia.

To fulfill his programme Hinckler had to reach Bundaberg, Queensland, his native place, about 1,700 miles from Port Darwin.

England, February 7. In landing at Port Darwin he was the first to be bettered by thirteen days the record for a flight to Australia from London established by the Smith Brothers in 1924. The flight covered the distance in twenty-eight days.

London, Feb. 22.—Bert Hinckler, Australian aviator, who arrived in Australia today from England, is acclaimed in London as having performed one of the most remarkable feats of flying skill and endurance that have yet been accomplished.

Claims are made that the fifteen-day flight established a new air record, being the fastest flight between England and Australia. The longest light plane flight ever made, the longest solo flight in any kind of an aero-plane, the first journey between England and Australia, the first to stop flight between London and Rome.

It developed today that Hinckler was powered by about $10,000 that he would have been able to make arrangements for a policy with Lloyd's which he previously was stated to have taken out. The underwriters said Hinckler was to take the policy for about £2,000 against reaching Australia within fifteen days but for some reason left without completing the negotiations.

NEW MACHINE TESTED
London, Feb. 22.—The London Daily
Mail today said the real object of Bert Hinckler's flight from England to Australia was to test a new policy of this British flier invented himself and to it he attributed his success on his present flight.

The plane he uses is fitted with folding wings and an under-carriage which swings back when the wings are folded, enabling the flier to house the machine in a garage and making it easy for one man to handle.

Hinckler sent messages to London saying he had not needed assistance in moving the machine when he started.

Money Voted to Goodwin Fund

Moncton, N.B., Feb. 22.—The Moncton branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League has given its financial support to the move initiated by the parent body to save from the gallows in California.

According to a letter from Goodwin Defence Committee of Victoria, in connection with the case, throwing a different light on the charges upon which he was convicted.

NO FEDERAL AID IN UNEMPLOYMENT

Government Does Not Contemplate Assistance to Provinces, Manitoba Informed

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Withdrawal of Federal contributions to the provinces for unemployment relief is announced in a letter from Premier King to Premier Bracken of Manitoba.

The Prime Minister in part says the policy of the Government as set out at the Federal-Provincial Conference was that such assistance as had been given from the Federal Treasury had justification as a war-time measure, to meet conditions arising out of the war and the re-establishment of returned men in civil life.

Mr. King continues: "It was stated at the conference that the justification for Federal assistance in the matter of unemployment on this ground no longer existed. On our opinion other circumstances have not arisen which at the present time justify contributions from the Federal Treasury to either the provinces or to manual, public as an assistance in dealing with the problem of unemployment."

The letter, dated February 22, was sent in answer to a query from the Manitoba Government as to what aid could be expected this year.

C. E. E. USSHER OF C.P.R. DIES IN MONTREAL

In June, 1887, he married Theodora Leonora, daughter of the late Edwin Dalley of Hamilton, Ontario.

STUDIED MUSIC

Mr. Usher originally intended to go in for a musical career, but owing to force of circumstances entered rail-roading. His first railway training was received in the auditor's office of the Great Western Railway in 1874. Later he was employed by the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific Railway and the Chicago and Atlantic Railway.

SAW GROWTH OF C.P.R.

He joined the C.P.R. when the trans-continental service was inaugurated and since then had seen its growth to a world-wide organization stretching around the globe. Yet another major activity of the C.P.R. which did not exist when he joined the company is the extensive chain of hotels and bungalow camps operated by the railway, of which he was in charge from the Chateau Frontenac of Quebec to the Empress Hotel in Victoria.

BOUGHT TICKETS

As an indication of his real to see that service to the public was up to the mark, Mr. Usher always bought his tickets on the railway as did any member of the general public. This he did in order to see for himself how passengers were treated.

In his capacity of executive in charge of hotels, Mr. Usher concentrated largely on developing the attraction of Canada as a tourist resort.

WIDE KNOWLEDGE

His knowledge of passenger traffic, both by land and sea, was encyclopaedic and his opinion on problems that came up before conferences on rail and steamship lines carried the greatest weight.

KNOWN IN VICTORIA

Mr. Usher was known to many citizens of Victoria, having visited this coast frequently during his long service with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

TRIBUTES PAID

Winnipeg, Feb. 22.—Tributes to the work of C. E. E. Usher, general passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, whose death took place in Montreal to-day, were paid by D. C. Coleman, vice-president, in charge of Western lines, and C. E. McPherson, assistant passenger traffic manager, Western lines.

In a statement issued here Mr. Coleman said:

"Mr. Usher spent several interesting years in Western Canada, and always looked back on that period of his career with the utmost pleasure. His fellow officers held him in the highest regard and esteem. His outstanding characteristic was his intense and unwavering joy in his work, and in that and many others he might be regarded as a model railway officer."

WORKED TOGETHER

Mr. McPherson, who for many years was closely associated with Mr. Usher in the passenger activities of the company, paid tribute to the late official as follows:

"Mr. Usher was intensely energetic and efficient. His death constitutes a distinct loss to the company. His fellow officers throughout the service knew him as a man whose greatest pleasure was in his work and in his loyalty to the Canadian Pacific Railway. In his death I have lost a personal friend."

"We are very much affected by the news of Mr. Usher's death," said Capt. J. W. Truop, manager of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service. "Mr. Usher was closely connected with our operations on the coast since the inauguration of the service and spent a good deal of his time here. I am sure that it is with deepest regret, all those who knew him in Victoria will hear of his passing."

TECHNICAL SCHOOL TO EMBRACE ALL

to itself the right of decision, and may stand in any event on the recourse of a ballot by the electorate.

Every detail in connection with the project of the school, which is to follow the system now in use in most coast centres, has been carefully worked out by the board, which forewarn at the start the fact that to be of service the school would have to serve the Greater Victoria district as a whole, and not be confined merely to city attendance.

Government assistance in financing of the project might be materially affected if only a city school were proposed, it is stated, a site grant of $100,000 which may be made available for a district-wide school, is based largely on the fact that rural municipalities would find difficulty in finding their proportion of the cost of the enterprise.

The plan now followed in regard to Saanich pupils at the Victoria High School is that a flat per capita attendance fee is collected on account of the right of the School Board to finance their education as outlined by the board. This same system would apply to the extension of technical school facilities to non-resident pupils, it is stated.

At Monday's council meeting, at which a joint conference with the School Board was decided upon, the majority of the council fully concurred in the right of the School Board to make any recommendation it saw fit after its special study of the requirements here. The study of technical school plans has been proceeding before the School board for a number of years, and has now come to a head with a direct request for a vote of the electorate on the financing of a suitable building and equipment. The cost of building and fittings on the city would be $145,000, at a carrying cost of some $9,400 a year.

Members of the board make no secret of the fact that they hope the outcome of the parley to-day will be a clearing away of the initial misunderstandings developed by the reference to district attendance, and a passage of the appropriation asked for subject to a vote of the electorate.

"The technical school plan will stand on its own legs, and needs no bolstering up. It is a timely common-sense move, and one of great importance to all who have young boys and girls growing up in Victoria or its environs," was the way one member of the board put it to-day.

CHIEF WITNESS WILL NOT TESTIFY IN GOODWIN CASE

A. Dewey Gaines Springs Surprise at Hearing in California

Santa Ana, Cal., Feb. 22.—There was no session to-day of the trial of Philip A. Goodwin, formerly of Victoria, B.C., on a charge of having murdered J. J. Patterson, Los Angeles broker, who was shot by Albert Dewey Gaines, Utah cowboy, who last year was convicted as an accomplice and sentenced to from fifteen years to life in a penitentiary. Yesterday afternoon refused to testify against Goodwin when brought to the trial from Folsom Prison. The former cowboy said that he testified against the accused man, the prisoners at Folsom would make life miserable for him.

Gaines' refusal to testify against the prosecution without immediate available witnesses and the court adjourned until Thursday morning. The judge ordered Gaines held in contempt of court and directed that he be returned to court each day of the trial and given an opportunity to testify.

WATCH CHARM IDENTIFIED

Ruth Walsh, a friend of the slain man, yesterday identified a watch charm and a belt buckle, found on the charred remains as having belonged to Patterson.

The present hearing is Goodwin's second trial on a charge of murder. At the first trial last year he was found guilty and sentenced to death, but the California Supreme Court ordered a new trial.

assume the burden with its present revenues.

Edmonton, Feb. 22.—Debate of the old-age pensions question which had occupied the Alberta Legislature for the better part of two days, came to a close at a late hour last night with the defeat by a vote of 34 to 15 of the amendment introduced by the Labor group calling upon the Provincial Government to bring in legislation at the present session to make effective the present provisions of the Federal Old-age Pensions Act and to continue negotiations with the Federal authorities with a view to having the Dominion take over increased financial responsibilities in connection with old-age pensions.

Three members of the Government Party voted with the Labor, Liberal and Conservative groups in supporting the amendment.

AT NEXT SESSION

"The Government resolution proposing that consideration of the Old-age Pensions Bill be deferred until the next session of the Legislature was carried by a vote of 38 to 15.

The effect of the voting is that no action will be taken in Alberta this year to implement the Federal legislation with regard to old-age pensions.

CO-OPERATION STRESSED FOR GROWERS

Growers, which now embraces something like 35,000 shareholders, its total assets being about $12,000,000. Liabilities $4,500,000, and surplus $4,500,000. It has grown thus powerful in the space of twenty-one years, starting with a few farmers who were fighting for their rights.

And this formation of union has not been without its difficulties, Mr. Black continued. Although the procedure was much standardized owing to the few grains which had to be dealt with and intercourses was comparatively easy, racial differences formed a considerable obstacle. However, he explained, a process of assimilation was going on, making a certain type of Canadian out of all these types. What this Canadian would eventually be like was hard to predict, he added.

DIFFERENT PROBLEM

British Columbia had a somewhat different problem to face, Mr. Black said. The geographical construction of the country, about intercourses difficult, the specialization of products and other problems facing unity of the growers.

In specializing in fruits and vegetables, there have developed growers with highly specialized minds, resulting in independence rather than co-operation, the speaker continued. Two groups, co-operators and independents, have sprung up, and the growers have not been able to present such a united front to the markets as have the prairie farmers.

Mr. Black explained how the growers had been bleeding themselves by selling their perishable products at proportionately low prices for fear of having them left on their hands. This situation resulted in a delegation coming to the local Legislature seeking aid in making them work together. The B.C. Produce Marketing Act was result of this plea.

Mr. Black went on to say that although many doubts had been expressed as to the legality of the act, as far as he could learn, the Province was entirely within its rights in enacting this legislation. It has stepped in to see if certain conditions existed detrimental to the welfare of some of its citizens, and was justified in so doing.

The working of the marketing board appointed under the act was then outlined by the speaker. It had started with no assets, no credit, no offices and no staff in June last year. After a few months of operation it had been able to get a staff of about 100 men to accept its responsibilities.

Following the inception of the marketing board, the growers seem to have improved in morale, probably their bank accounts have improved also, he stated.

80,000,000 FRUIT CROP

Touching upon the question of potato control by the board, Mr. Black compared the fruit produce to the potato crop value of about $400,000. In comparison, the actual importance of the potatoes had been rather over-stressed, he thought.

The committee has worked on the principle that the grower should get a fair reward for his labor. The white grower should get sufficient return to bring up his family in the manner in which a white family should be raised. It also has to deal with competitive elements, thus facing a difficult task.

"By concerted effort on the part of the growers, these problems can be solved. You must work together to present a united front to the rest of the Province. Nothing is incapable of solution if the farmers will co-operate," declared Mr. Black.

In conclusion Mr. Black suggested the possibilities of the prairie market for British Columbia produce. The central committee of the marketing board would endeavor this summer to introduce British Columbia produce to the prairie provinces, particularly through women's organizations.

J. A. Griffith, chairman of the agricultural group of the Chamber of Commerce, moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Black.

F. B. Fowler was chairman of the luncheon. T. G. Coventry, M.P. for Saanich; Reeve William Crouch and members of the Saanich Council; Rev. Montague Bruce, president of the Vancouver Island Associated Boards of Trade; C. Cochrane, president of the Sidney Board of Trade, and several members of the agricultural group of the chamber were guests.

GUIDE AND SCOUT DANCE ATTRACTS MANY GUESTS

His Honor Lieut.-Governor Among Many at Alexandra Ballroom

Unusually beautiful decorations transformed the Alexandra ballroom into a bower of color last evening for the dance held under the joint auspices of the local Girl Guides and Boy Scouts' Associations. Flags, pennants and standards were used in mural decoration, supplemented by a profusion of Oregon grape, pussywillow and daffodils, while a clever arrangement of flags hung from the ceiling concealed quantities of gay balloons which were released later in the evening.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mackenzie, accompanied by Capt. W. Hobart Molson and A. M. Fairbairn, arrived at 9:30 o'clock and were welcomed by Mrs. Curtis Sampson.

WILLINGDON TO INSPECT GIRL GUIDES IN APRIL

Annual Meeting of Association Told of Plans; Splendid Reports

Inspection of Guides and Guiders by Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon in Beacon Hill Park on April 14 was one of the interesting events scheduled for the future at the annual meeting of the Vancouver Island District Girl Guide Association, held in the new headquarters, Langley Street, on Monday evening. Mrs. Curtis Sampson, the president, was in the chair.

The officers for 1928, all of whom were returned by acclamation, will be: President, Mrs. Curtis Sampson; secretary, Mrs. A. D. Musket; treasurer, Miss Unwin; badge convener, Miss Wigley.

Miss Bowron was named delegate to Local Council of Women. Two delegates will be named from each district to attend the provincial annual meeting, which will be held at 10:30 o'clock on March 19, 750 Pemberton Road, by kind invitation of Mrs. Alan Morkill, Provincial commissioner. No changes were made in the committee for the district, all consenting to carry on.

The secretary reported that Mrs. A. C. Burdick, though still actively interested in guide work, had, owing to other duties, resigned the position of president in September, and that Mrs. Curtis Sampson had been elected to that office.

REORGANIZATION EFFECTED
Owing to the growth of guiding in the district, reorganization had taken place under the advice of the Provincial commissioner and Victoria divided into two districts. Miss Hilda Leighton had been appointed divisional commissioner for Victoria West, and Mrs. C. A. Genge, commissioner for Victoria East. The report dealt fully with the activities of the year.

The treasurer's report was most satisfactory. In moving its adoption Miss Unwin suggested that a vote of thanks be given to H. T. Ranshull, who had kindly given his services as auditor, and this was heartily given.

Mrs. Kinloch reported on the division of the year, containing the marks chiefly to the All-Canada Diamond Jubilee Camp, which had been held in the summer, and which had, owing to the organization of Mrs. Morkill as commandant, and Miss Leighton as assistant commandant and their well chosen staff, proved most successful and brought B. C. Guiding into a favorable notice throughout the Dominion.

NEW COMPANIES FORMED
Miss Leighton, divisional commissioner, spoke of satisfactory progress. The division of the district, owing to increased number of companies and packs, was working well and already two new companies have been formed and a third being organized. As a result of a visit from the Provincial commissioner, a local association was formed at Sidney.

Training classes for Guiders and prospective Guiders have proved most instructive and enjoyable. These are held under the direction of Miss Stewart Williams, whom she was proud to claim as the first B.C. Blue Diplomed Guider. The fact that out of thirty-four Guiders in the division, fifteen are former Guiders and one former Sea Guide has become a Cub mistress, shows success in holding the interest of a Guider the whole of one's time should be devoted to Guide work, a really successful Guider must take an interest in everything around her.

Miss Leighton announced that arrangements are being made for the Excellencies Lord and Lady Willingdon to inspect the division in Beacon Hill Park on April 14.

MANY BADGES AWARDED
Miss Wigley, badge convener, reported that seventy-nine examinations had been set during the year with a total of 327 entrants, 210 of whom passed. The examiners had in every case been experts in their subjects and had for their kind co-operation, Miss Leighton reported for the Local Council of Women.

Mrs. Allen Morkill, Provincial commissioner, congratulated the members offering her congratulations on the

YOUR BABY and MINE

by MRS. MARY ELDERED

Mrs. Eldered will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children, stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

FIRST SIX WEEKS A PERIOD OF TRAINING

The young mother never notices how much the baby cries until she is left alone with him after the departure of the nurse, or upon her return from the hospital. Then she finds that far from being the model baby the family have assured her he is, he seems to spend large portions of the day with his mouth open, emitting shrieks that, in her terror, she cannot diagnose, is he hungry, or heaves, or is he crying from colic? She doesn't know whether she should nurse him or put him in his bed with a hot water bottle. She looks at the thin blue fluid which is mother's milk, compares it in her mind to cow's milk and decides that nothing could possibly be nourished on that thin stuff. In a word she is panic stricken.

This is a good time for her to shake herself and return to normal. A very new mother cannot always tell whether a shriek comes from pain or from desire for more food. She must have a scale with which she can weigh the baby before and after nursing and, if she finds his weight goes up several ounces after a feeding, she can feel certain that his small stomach has had enough food. Perhaps the food is at fault. She can shake herself again and remember that she is now burdened with household duties which heretofore she has been spared and that small babies react somewhat to the condition of their mothers. If the mother is nervous and tired and worn out at six o'clock she probably won't give as good a supply of milk as she has earlier in the day and babies, unaware at this early age that they are expected to sleep and not cry, are very likely to raise the echoes when they find their bed-time dinner so scant in quantity. Instead of tearing one's hair and giving the baby with water and enemas, when this happens regularly at six and at no other time, give the baby a complementary bottle feeding and send him off to dreamland with a full tummy. Keep in mind that the ailments and upsets of the first six weeks will end when the mother is stronger, and better adjusted to nursing and the baby well regulated. This takes time and six weeks is a comparatively short time to noot out all these knotted threads.

Watch that scale. Keep the baby to regular hours and have some idea of the reason for his crying. If the mother nurses him whenever he cries she can never know what is wrong. New experiences are usually painful, but the mother is stronger than the sum total of these women individually."

Spoke of the loneliness and the hardships which faced the pioneer women in the isolated rural communities. The lot of these women led to the founding of the women's institutes in this Province, whose aims, objects and constitution were described by the speaker.

PRACTICAL RESULTS
Every report received and every resolution passed in the institutes must lead to some practical purpose, said Mrs. Gordon. She also pointed to the democratic spirit under which the institutes recognized the need for annual

Church Gives Views To the Commons on Ottawa Commission

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Speaking in the budget debate in the House of Commons last night, T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto Northwest, said the Federal District Commission had proposed recently to give away eleven acres of ground in Ottawa as a site for the United States Embassy. Mr. Church asked if anyone had ever heard of Uncle Sam giving away anything to Hon. Vincent Massey in Washington. No, Mr. Massey had been required to pay for everything he got with good coin of the realm, he said.

Mr. Church thought there should be a "housecleaning" in the Federal District Commission.

New Hair Style from New York

"I've so little time, to myself," says Mildred Warshaw, lovely New York City girl, who lives at 1353 42nd Street, Brooklyn. "That's why it's been such a help to me to learn the new way so many of my girl-friends are doing their hair. Now I just put a few dashes of Danderine on my brush every time I use it. It makes my hair easy to dress and holds it in place. All I need is one shampoo a month, now. I stopped my dandruff, and my hair is always gleaming and silky, instead of looking dull and stringy like it did before I started using Danderine."

Danderine does more to bring out the natural color, the gleam and lustre of your hair, than any shampoo or treatment. It removes all the dust, grime and oily film from your hair—tones and refreshes your scalp—keeps dandruff away. All drug stores have the 35c bottles. Lovely hair and a healthy scalp for a few cents! The BENSON MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE • CHARLES COCHRAN

"I'm not a frugal consumer natus like you," snapped Markham. "I was elected to this office—"

"Oh, quite," Vance chimed in. "But don't be so sensitive. Even if the Captain has succeeded in bungling his way out of jail, you have at least five possibilities left."

"There's Mrs. Plais and Pryle... and Colonel Ostrander... and Mrs. Hoffman... and Mrs. Manning... I say! Why don't you arrest 'em all, one at a time, and get them to confess! Heath would go crazy with joy."

Markham was in too crestfallen a mood to resent this chaffing. Indeed, Vance's light-heartedness seemed to buoy him up.

"If you want the truth," he said, "that's exactly what I feel like doing. I am restrained merely by my indecision as to which one to arrest first."

"Stout fellow!" Then Vance asked, "What are you going to do with the Captain now? I'll break his heart if you release him."

"He heartily has to break, I'm afraid," Markham reached for the telephone. "I'd better see to the formalities now."

"Just a moment!" Vance put forth a restraining hand. "Don't end his rapturous martyrdom just yet. Let him be happy for another day at least. I've a notion he may be most useful to us, putting away in his lonely cell like the prisoner of Chillon."

Markham put down the telephone without a word. More and more, he was becoming inclined to accept Vance's leadership. This attitude was not merely the result of the hopeless confusion in his mind, though his uncertainty probably influenced him to some extent; but it was due in large measure to the impression Vance had given him of knowing more than he cared to reveal.

"Have you tried to figure out just how Pryle and his Turtledove fit into the case?" Vance asked.

"Along with a few thousand other enigmas—yes," was the petulant reply. "But the more I try to reason it out, the more of a mystery the whole thing becomes."

"I've put, my dear Markham," criticized Vance. "There are no mysteries originating in human beings. I know; there are only problems. And my problem, originating in one human being, can be solved by another human being. It merely requires a knowledge of the human mind, and the application of that knowledge to human acts. Simple, what?"

He glanced at the clock.

"I wonder how your Mr. Stitt is getting along with the Benson and Benson books. I await his report with anticipatory excitement."

This was too much for Markham. The wearing-down process of Vance's intimations and veiled innuendoes had at last dispelled his self-control. He bent forward and struck the desk angrily with his hand.

"I'm damned tired of this superior attitude of yours," he complained hotly. "Either you know something of you don't. If you don't know anything, do me the favor of dropping these insinuations of knowledge. If you do know anything, it's up to you to tell me."

"You've been hinting around in one way or another ever since Benson was shot. If you've got any idea who killed him, I want to know it."

He leaned back, and took out a cigar. Not once did he look up as he carefully clipped the end and lit it. I think he was a little ashamed at having given way to his anger.

Vance had sat apparently unconcerned during the outburst. At length he stretched his legs, and gave Markham a long contemplative look.

"I know, Markham, old bean. I don't blame you a bit for your unseemly ebullience. The situation has been most provoking. But now, I fancy, the time has come to put an end to the comedietta. I really haven't been spoofing, y'know. The fact is, I've some most interesting ideas on the subject."

He stood up and yawned.

"It's a deadly bore to tell me, but it must be done—eh, what?"

"So high is grandeur to our dust, So near is God to man. When duty whispers low, Thou must, The voice replies, I can."

"I'm the noble youth, don't y'know. And you're the voice of duty—though you don't exactly whisper, did you?"

Was there any more to the Pilgrims' and Goethe's answer? Die Forderung des Tages. But—deuce take it!—I wish the demand had come on a cooler day."

He handed Markham his hat.

"Come. Postume. To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose" under the heaven. You are through with the office for 10-day—inform Swacker of the fact, will you?—there's a dear! We attend upon a lady—Miss St. Clair, no less."

Markham realized that Vance's jesting manner was only the masquerade of a very serious purpose. Also, he knew that Vance would tell him what he knew or suspected only in his own way, and that, no matter how circuitous and unreasonable that way might appear, Vance had excellent reasons for following it.

Furthermore, since the unmasking of Captain Lescock's purely fictitious confession, he was in a state of mind to follow any suggestion that held the faintest hope of getting at the truth. He therefore rang at once for Swacker, and informed him he was quitting the office for the day.

In ten minutes we were in the subway on our way to 94 Riverside drive.

CHAPTER XIV
(Wednesday, June 19; 4:30 p. m.)

"The quest for enlightenment upon which we are now embarked," said Vance, as we rode up town, "may prove a bit tedious. But you must exert your will-power, and bear with me. You can't imagine what a ticklish task I have on my hands. And it's not a pleasant one either. I'm a bit too young to be sentimental, and yet, I know, I'm half inclined to let your culprit go."

"Would you mind telling me why we are calling on Miss St. Clair?" asked Markham restlessly.

Vance amiably complied.

"Not at all. Indeed, I deem it best for you to know. There are several points connected with the lady that need those articles—eh, what?—Then, you recall, Miss Hoffman told us that the Major was lending an ear when a certain lady called upon Benson the day he was shot. I suspect that the visitor was Miss St. Clair; and I am rather curious to know what took place in the office that day, and why she came back later."

"Also, why did she go to Benson's for tea that afternoon? And what part did the jewels play in the chat?—But there are other items. For example: Why did the Captain take his gun to her? What makes him think the shot Benson?—he really believes it, y'know. And why did she think that he was guilty from the first?"

Markham looked sceptical.

"You expect her to tell us all this?"

"My hopes run high," returned Vance. "With her verriy parfit gentill knight jalled as a self-confessed murderer, she will have nothing to lose by unburdening her soul. ... But we must have no blustering. Your police brand of aggressive cross-examination will, I assure you, have no effect upon the lady."

"Just how do you propose to elicit your information?"

"With morbidezza, as the painters say. Much refined and gentlemanly, y'know."

Markham considered a moment.

"I think I'll keep out of it, and leave the Socratic elenctus entirely to you."

"An extraordinary brilliant suggestion," said Vance.

When we arrived Markham announced that he had a regular mission: and we were received by Miss St. Clair without a moment's delay. She was apprehensive, I imagine, concerning the whereabouts of Captain Lescock. As she sat before us in her little drawing-room overlooking the Hudson, her face was quite pale, and her hands, though tightly clasped, trembled a little. She had lost much of her cold reserve, and there were unmistakable signs of sleepless worry about her eyes.

"This quotation from Ecclesiastes reminds me that Vance regularly read the Old Testament. When I weary of the professional literary man," he once said, "I find stimulation in the majestic prose of the Bible. If the moderns feel that they simply must write, they should be made to spend at least two hours a day with the Biblical historians."

SEND GREETINGS TO CHIEF GUIDE

The following message of greeting was cabled yesterday to Sir Robert and Lady Baden-Powell, who were both celebrating a birthday, by Mrs. Alan Morrell, Provincial Guide Commissioner: "Guides, Guides and Brownies of British Columbia wish you both many happy returns!"

SAYS PROGRESS OF INDUSTRY IN WOMEN'S HANDS

Major Cuthbert Holmes Reviews Local Situation Before Local Council of Women

"The life-blood of industry depends on buying power. As the women are the principal buyers, they are a prime factor in industrial progress and in their hands lies a tremendous power for industrial improvement," Major Cuthbert Holmes told the Local Council of Women yesterday afternoon in an interesting address on "Industries."

The speaker noted that on the eve of Vancouver Island with approximately 20,000 families depending on an average of $1,000 a year, $20,000,000 was represented—a sum sufficiently large to support several industries. He hoped the day would come when the road from Victoria would be lined with a series of beautiful industrial factories.

splendid reports given and speaking with enthusiasm of the united spirit shown by the local association in Victoria. She also spoke highly of the training classes held by Miss Stewart-Williams and, in referring to the great success attained by the undertaking of the year, the Jubilee Camp, said it was due greatly to the splendid team work of all concerned.

In making the presentation Mrs. Sampson said that Guide work was not for better citizenship, she exhorted her audience to keep faith with the ideals of the movement, for they had something to offer which was valuable in the health and happiness making of the young.

The commissioner then showed a series of extremely interesting pictures of "Guides and Brownies" and other outstanding events. Great interest was aroused by pictures showing the work of the guides and post guides, which include in the movement crippled children, invalids and those whose lives are spent in lonely places. A vote of thanks was moved to Mrs. Morrell by Miss A. B. Cooke and tendered by Mrs. Curtis-Sampson.

THANKS BADGES PRESENTED

A pretty little ceremony was performed when the Thanks Badge, an honor reserved for those who have done a great kindness for the Guide movement, was presented by Mrs. Curtis-Sampson, president, to Miss Urwin, Miss Wigley and Miss Page.

In making the presentation Mrs. Sampson explained that the badge presented to Miss Urwin was in renewal of one previously given in appreciation of her untiring work, first as over the house-telephone that he had come on a vitally important mission; and we were received by Miss St. Clair without a moment's delay. She was apprehensive, I imagine, concerning the whereabouts of Captain Lescock. As she sat before us in her little drawing-room overlooking the Hudson, her face was quite pale, and her hands, though tightly clasped, trembled a little. She had lost much of her cold reserve, and there were unmistakable signs of sleepless worry about her eyes.

changes in the personnel of their executives, a practice worthy of imitation by other organizations.

RURAL HANDICRAFTS

The proposed survey of rural conditions, the attempt to revive and establish rural handicrafts and other measures contemplated by the institutes were touched upon. Mrs. Gordon also reminded the gathering that the Queen Alexandra Order of Merit, an establishment to the institutes, who first sponsored the idea.

INDIAN DESIGNS

Some of the attractive Chinook Indian designs which are being utilized for patterns for the making of hooked rugs, were shown by Mrs. Gordon as evidence of the very practical work being carried on through the W.I. by way of encouraging rural industries in this Province. Mrs. V. B. MacIsaac also spoke briefly on the subject and showed a number of rug designs.

Mrs. Colbrant introduced the suggestion recommended by the National Council set aside one day in the year in which all affiliated societies contribute in raising the allocation fee. After some discussion it was decided that affiliated societies send in their contributions for this purpose before June 2.

In her report as supervisor of the citizenship committee, Miss Morrow told of the success of British Empire Shopping week here, and plans for its observance here in May. The consummation of the long campaign for women police, and the securing of a woman candidate for the City Council were touched upon. She also appealed to women to show their appreciation of the franchise by exercising the vote, municipally, provincially and nationally.

DAIRY CONGRESS

Washington, Feb. 22.—President Coolidge was authorizing yesterday to accept the invitation of the British Government to appoint delegates to the Eighth International Dairy Congress, to be held in England during next June and July, with the passage by the Senate of a resolution which had already passed the House. An appropriation of $10,000 was authorized.

BRITISH GOLF TEAM MAY WIN CUP

American Amateurs To Have Hard Time Holding Walker Cup This Year

Bobby Jones Comments Upon Wonderful Material Britain Has for Walker Cup Team, This Year and Warns Americans That Cup May Go Back Across Atlantic; Slowly Recovering From Effects of Great War Britain Has Brought Several New Stars to the Front in Last Two Years

By BOBBY JONES

The golf season of 1923 promises to be one of the most interesting of recent years. A visit to the United States of a Walker Cup team from Great Britain is always a tremendous stimulus to amateur activities. Since 1922, when the competition was inaugurated, following an informal match at Hoylake the year before, the international flavor has come to be quite an important part of championships both here and in the British Isles. I was assured, upon my visit to St. Andrews, that the amateur championship was "quite flat" without the American players, and I am sure that the feeling is reciprocated in double measure upon this side of the Atlantic.

For the coming matches Great Britain should be able to put into the field the very strongest team that America has ever opposed provided, of course, that all her star players will be able to make the trip. Recovering slowly from the losses occasioned by the war, British golf, especially in the amateur field, has made rapid strides forward in the past two years. Each season has seen the advent of new stars and a constant improvement in the old.

MANY STARS COMING TO FORE

The 1923 season brought out Andrew Jameson and the Hon. W. Brownlow. Neither of these young men is a newcomer in America for everyone over here remembers that Jameson was a member of the British team which defeated the American team in the 1922 Walker Cup. Both have played extremely well and have established themselves among the leading candidates for positions on this year's team.

Last year brought forth two more players, who have accomplished enough already to need no further trial. In fact, I am not certain that Dr. Tweddell and Mr. Perkins are not about the best of the crop that England has produced within the past five years. They are both sound and reliable players, but almost diametrically opposite in type. Dr. Tweddell is not a long driver, but he is very straight. He is the man who goes quietly along making a mistake and rarely doing anything startling. Mr. Perkins, on the other hand, is a very long driver and inclined to stray a bit. He is an exceptionally powerful player and should become steadier as time goes on.

Dr. Tweddell having won the British Amateur Championship and Mr. Perkins the English one, and both having played steadily in the Open at St. Andrews, there can remain no doubt that both are splendid competitors as well as fine players. They should add great strength to any team.

TOLLEY BETTER THAN EVER

Cyril Tolley, to my way of thinking, is hitting the ball better than ever before. After the dropping out in the early rounds at Hoylake, he struck his real stride and played very fine golf for the rest of the season. He led the field in the qualifying stages at St. Andrews, tying the amateur record for the new course and only barely missing a holeable putt to break that of the old in the two days. He did not maintain that pace in the championship proper, but since then he has won numerous events of importance.

W. B. Torrance also played very well last year after several off seasons. At St. Andrews he flashed in, too, with Perkins.

I am a little doubtful if Roger Wethered will see fit to make the trip if his driving has not improved. He has always been one of the most dangerous men on the British side, especially at St. Andrews where he plays extremely well. But when I last played with him he was about as unsteady as could be off the tee, and this set up him that the rest of his game was affected. However, if his tee shots get straightened out he will be as formidable as any man on either side.

BRITAIN DETERMINED TO HAVE CUP

With all the old guard who have played against America for years, reinforced by the four or five new stars, America is going to be hard pressed to retain the cup. Our opponents have been aroused by continued reverses and they are coming this year determined to take our measure. In the last match at St. Andrews they came uncomfortably near doing it. George Von Elm had to work like a dog to finish even with Major Haddet to earn America a victory by the margin of half a point. Nothing could be closer than that.

And at St. Andrews, Great Britain had no Dr. Tweddell, nor Mr. Perkins, nor Mr. Torrance.

We need not take for granted that America will keep the Walker Cup always. Our friends are determined to have it and have it they shall, sooner or later. It may just as well go to them this year, in spite of our best efforts. But we are just as determined to keep it as they are to get it, and we have the advantage of playing in our own backyard.

TWO VICTORIA MEN TO BE APPOINTED ON OLYMPIC BOARD

Seven Men to Look After Development of B.C. Athletes For Try-outs

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 22.—At the instigation of Bert Tennant, president of the local branch of the A.O.U., a member of the Canadian Olympic committee is in process of organization. The committee will be comprised of seven men, two each from Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster and one from the upper country and will have as its objective the development of British Columbia athletes for the forthcoming Canadian Olympic trials at Hamilton and the raising of funds to send these athletes to the Ontario meet after they have been developed.

Col. Victor Spencer and Jack Ross have been suggested as the Vancouver representatives, while the names of R. C. McDonald and Herb Ryal have been selected as New Westminster's committee members. The Victoria and interior nominees have not been named.

It is planned to approach the Provincial Government for a grant to assist in sending British Columbia athletes to Hamilton and the world games. Never before has the Provincial Government aided in this respect and athletic leaders are looking forward to some assistance from the Legislature this year.

Wethered may prove one of the obstacles in the path of another American team emerging victorious in the Walker Cup matches, in the opinion of Bobby Jones.

Loughran Forced To Put His Title Away With the Moth Balls

Light-heavyweight Champion Blocked in His Desire to Fight Once a Month by Either Lack of Suitable Opponents or One of Rickard's Heavyweight Extravaganzas; Hudkins Files Challenge for Bout With Joe Dundee, Champion, But Gets Little Encouragement; Other Bouts in Offing

New York, Feb. 22.—The crown that Tommy Loughran captured from Mike McTigue, and promised to defend once a month if possible against the best of the light heavyweights, is going into mothballs for three months—but it's not Tommy's fault.

Lack of a suitable opponent and a date that doesn't conflict with either a welterweight championship match or one of the heavyweight extravaganzas in Tex Rickard's elimination finals has forced Loughran's inactivity, the 175-pound titleholder declared on his return yesterday to New York after a month's cruise through the Caribbean Sea. Decision to sidetrack Tommy for the time being will permit a match between Leo Lomaki, who already has failed to lift the champion's mantle, and Joe Sekeem, of Dayton, latest sensation in the light-heavyweight ranks. The match probably will be made for late in March, with the winner meeting Loughran in a title test in April or May. An injury to Jimmy Slattery's hand has forced the Buffalo challenger from the late temporarily.

HUDKINS' CHALLENGES

Ace Hudkins, who trounced Sammy Baker in a vicious "rubber" match at Madison Square Garden Friday night, took his challenge of Joe Dundee to the New York State Athletic Commission yesterday, but was given little encouragement. The welterweight champion is under suspension here as a result of charges brought against him in California for failure to go through with a title match against Hudkins in Los Angeles.

Although no contracts can be made with Dundee while the Baltimore Italian is under suspension, a welterweight championship "shot" has been assured Hudkins on March 23 at the Garden. Dundee has been under contract for the bout since last November.

BELANGER IN GOOD STANDING

The commission reinstated French Belanger, of Toronto, former National Boxing Association flyweight champion, with an explanation that his notice to appear before the board recently went astray. Belanger was set down

WILL ACT ON SMOKE NUISANCE

Notice that indefinite suspension would be placed on Madison Square Garden itself if immediate action was not taken to stop smoking during bouts, brought a promise of a special "smoke" squad employed by the Garden to carry out the commission ruling. After one warning, offenders in the future will be ejected and their admission fee returned.

The "ejection" total is expected to be high whenever the Garden fight cards fail to meet patrons' approval.

REVELSTOKE DEFAULT

Revelstoke, Feb. 22.—Revelstoke juniors defaulted to Fernie yesterday in the hockey playoff for the provincial title as a result of which Fernie plays Salmon Arm this week in a further elimination contest. In an exhibition game last night between Fernie and Revelstoke all-stars, Fernie won 11-3.

TRAIL EXCITED OVER PLAYOFFS FOR ICE TITLE

Arena Sold Out in Two Hours For Opening Game Tomorrow Night

Monarchs, in Good Shape, Ready to Force Issue With Trail's Best Bets

Although no official intimation has reached B.C.A.H.A. officials, it is assumed, judging from telegraphic correspondence, that the first round of the Allan Cup series between the Alberta and B.C. winners will be played in Vancouver. Trail has made a strong bid for the series in the event of their defeating the Monarchs this week, but in view of the small crowd that can be accommodated at Trail, it is probable Dr. Sandbrook will stick to his original intention of playing the first round on the Coast. The dates would be March 5 and 9 for the seniors with the juniors intervening on the 6th and 7th, or March 9 and 13 for the seniors with the O.H.A. Memorial supers playing on March 5 and 7.

In quest of the Savage Cup, representing the senior amateur championship of British Columbia, the Monarchs' hockey team left last evening for Trail to tackle the Kootenay champions in a two-game series on the basis of goals, on Thursday and Saturday. The Coast team will reach Trail about 11:30 o'clock to-night and will work out to-morrow morning.

SEATS WENT FAST

On the final play-off game between Trail and Nelson, the seat sale in Trail went on at 8 o'clock and was sold out two hours later. Seating accommodation is 2,000, with standing room for an additional 500. The Trail rink surface is 75x100 ft. Following their games in Trail, the Monarchs may play an exhibition game in Nelson and another against an all-star Okanagan League team in Vernon. These will depend on ice conditions.

Tothill Further Increases Lead Over Jim Quinn

Montreal, Feb. 22.—Tom Tothill, western challenger for the Dominion English billiard title, further increased his lead over James Quinn, the champion, in today's play of the championship. Tothill made a total of 2,666 points to Quinn's 1,936. Tothill made high breaks of 155, 116 and 161, while Quinn had a couple to his credit, scoring 129 and 113.

CHAMP ENTERS FINALS

Boston, Mass., Feb. 22.—Clarence Fell, defending champion, yesterday entered the finals of the national pacquet championship by beating J. F. Simpson, British titleholder, in straight sets here, 15-12, 15-5, 15-10.

RETURNS TO GAME

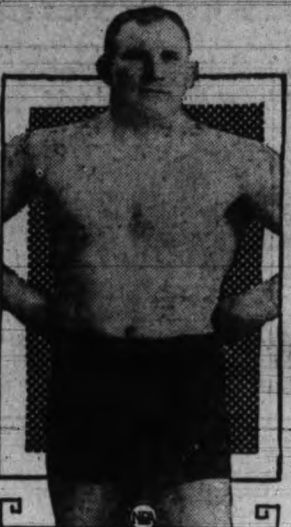

BABE DYE

Chicago, Feb. 22.—Babe Dye, one of the leading scorers of the National Hockey League last year who broke his leg just before this winter's season started, expects to return to the Chicago Black Hawks to-night in their game against Ottawa Senators.

Dye has been in training with the Hawks on their recent road trip and plans to skate in as a reserve to-night.

MAN FOR LEWIS

HANS STEINKE

The big German grappler, whose neck is so big that he can put his collar over his head without unbuttoning it or loosening his tie, is the man Ed (Strangler) Lewis has been trying to get a match with either Lewis or Stecher for a long time, but has never succeeded. He may now be matched with Lewis, who has announced his intention to wrestle any worthy contender.

CARTER SO CLEVER OPPONENT FAILS TO LAY GLOVE ON HIM

"Wildcat" Makes Bonillas Quit in Second Round; Walker Fights To-day

Seattle, Feb. 22.—Billy Bonillas Taft, California featherweight, did not even give Leslie "Wildcat" Carter, sensational negro from Everett, a decent workout in the scheduled six-round main event last night. The go was stopped in the second round when Bonillas hit the referee with a terrible beating without returning successfully once.

While the "wildcat" looked better than ever before Bonillas has been on a big slump since he fought on almost even terms with Doc Snell here a year ago. Most of Carter's punches shook him and he could not lay the leather on the Everett youngster.

Every other go on the card was a draw. Most of them fast and tough mixes.

Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Joe Anderson, Kentucky middleweight and Bert Collins, Whittier, Cal., Mexican, battled ten rounds to a draw here last night.

San Francisco, Feb. 22.—Mickey Walker's middleweight title will not be at stake this afternoon, but he will trade leather with a terrific puncher whose record numbers many knockouts, when he meets Jack Willis, Texas, in a ten-round bout at the armory.

FAVORITES ALL WIN IN FLORIDA TOURNEY

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 22.—Results in the Florida women's golf tournament showed mostly victories for the favorites yesterday with all of the nationally known entries coming through handily. Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N.J., won from Virginia Holmcher, Baltimore, 4 and 3; Beatrice Gottlieb, New York, defeated Mrs. Stuart Hanley, Detroit, 5 and 4; Miss E. Bryant, Chicago, beat Mrs. J. W. Wallace, New York, 1 up; Harriet Ellison, Newton, Mass., defeated Mrs. O. Hill, Kansas City, 1 up; Mrs. H. Payson, Portland, Me., defeated Mrs. M. A. Lutz, New York, 3 and 2; Virginia Van Wie, Chicago, defeated Virginia Forrest, Boston, 4 and 3; Mrs. C. McElroy, New York, won from Mrs. O. Hiley, New York, 2 up; Mrs. Florence Burrow, New York, defeated Mrs. James Stretch, Hartford, 7 and 6.

PLAY FOR WIGHTMAN TROPHY DURING JUNE

London, Feb. 22.—The British Lawn Tennis Association yesterday announced that the Wightman cup competition at Wimbledon would be held June 12 and June 13.

The association also announced that if representative players were available a team of three men would be sent to compete in the American championships.

Lewis, Happy Over His Victory, Announces He Will Meet Worthy Men

Stecher Thinks Third Fall Was Breach of Rules and States He Will Go Into Active Training and Attempt Come-back; Hans Steinke, of Germany, Pushed Forward by New York Commission as Man Who Must Be Beaten Before Lewis Is Accepted as the World's Champion

St. Louis, Feb. 22.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, jubilant to-day in his triumph on Monday night over Joe Stecher, pledged himself to meet any outstanding challenger for the heavyweight wrestling title, anywhere, any time a suitable offer was forthcoming.

Billy Sandow, his manager, received numerous offers, one of $20,000 from Chicago for a match with Hans Steinke, the ponderous German. Steinke is recognized as the world's heavy weight champion by the New York Athletic Commission and has been seeking a match with Lewis ever since he became a threat in the heavyweight ranks.

Hornsby to Room With His Boss to Show Friendship

Boston, Feb. 22.—Roberts Hornsby has taken over in an active way the post of field captain of the Boston Braves according to reports from the Spring camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., and to cement matters the "Rajah" and Jack Slattery, new pilot of Judge Fuchs' warriors, have become roommates.

CARPET BOWLING

Hudson's Bay and Saanich carpet bowlers mixed it last evening in a friendly tournament of four games.

The ladies were strongly represented on the teams and displayed quite a lot of skill at the game.

Saanich had the edge on the city teams, the All-Stars only being beaten after an extra end.

The results were:

Saanich 11 Dumbells 7

Burnside 15 Die Hards 6

Hamptonians 10 All-Stars 9

Tillamooks 12 Short Circuits 6

48 38

Roller Hockey

Three games were seen last night in the Roller Hockey League played at the Victoria West gymnasium.

In the first game of the evening Rock Bay sent the Willows Canucks down to a 4-3 defeat. Donerty got two goals and Muegrave and Norrington one each for Rock Bay. Tierney scored two and Turner one for the Canucks.

Five goals by Albie Davis contributed a large part towards the victory of the Victoria Wests over the Capitals by a 10-7 score. The other goals were scored by Walker, three, and McAllister and Jumbo Davies one each. Dickinson with three and Tierney and West with one each netted the goals for the Capitals.

HONEST ENOUGH

The consensus of opinion to-day was that the match was honestly contested.

NEW YORK, FEB. 22.—The first dissenting voice to the crowning of Ed (Strangler) Lewis as undisputed heavyweight wrestling champion, as a result of his victory over Joe Stecher was raised yesterday by the New York State Athletic Committee, declaring its own investigation had established Hans Steinke of Germany as possessing the best title claims, the commission declared it would not recognize Lewis as champion until he had defeated Steinke.

Morenz and Joliat Lead Scorers While Shore Tops "Bad Men"

"Flying Frenchmen" Hold First Two Places in Individual Scoring Race in N.H.L.; George Hay, of Detroit, Is Third, With Frank Boucher and Mickey MacKay Close Behind

New York, Feb. 22.—Those flying Canadians, Howie Morenz and Auril Joliat, still lead the National Hockey League scorers, although Joliat's hold on second place is far from secure.

Statistics for games up to and including February 19 show Morenz out in front with 36 points, ten more than Joliat. Pressing the latter closely is George Hay, of Detroit, leader of the American division of the league, whose 13 goals and ten assists give him 23 points. Morenz has scored 24 goals and made 12 assists. Joliat's 26 points have been accumulated through the medium of 20 goals and six assists.

Just back of these three are Bill Carson, of Toronto, and Art Gagne, another of the Canadians' stars, each with 22 points. A point behind trail Nels Stewart, of the Montreal Maroons, and Frank Boucher, of the New York Rangers, who holds second place in the American division. Mackay, of Chicago, has scored 23 points.

SHORE HAS MANY PENALTIES

Eddie Shore, of Boston, still leads both divisions in times spent in the penalty box, 120 minutes, but has Ching Johnson, of the Rangers, within speaking distance. Johnson has remained off the ice by request for 103 minutes. Art Duncan, of Toronto, is the "bad man" of the Canadian division, with 79 minutes of penalties. Not far behind are Babe Seibert, of the Maroons, with 78 minutes, and Lionel Conacher of the New York Americans, with 70.

Four Prominent Pro Golfers To Appear In Match At Oak Bay

Phil Taylor of Victoria, Dave Black of Vancouver, Eric Bannister of Winnipeg and Walter Pursey of Seattle Will Play Thirty-six-holes Match at Victoria Golf Club on February 26

Four exceptionally well-known Western professional golfers have arranged to play a match at the Victoria Golf Club on February 26. Eric Bannister, of Winnipeg, who finished in the money in the Los Angeles open last month; Dave Black, the popular pro of the Shaughnessy Golf Club, Vancouver; Walter Pursey of Seattle and Phil Taylor, of the Victoria Golf Club, will be the players.

No decision has been reached as yet as to how the players will pair off, but it is likely that Taylor and Black will oppose Bannister and Pursey. Taylor and Black have paired in some important matches in the past and have taken into camp golfers of international repute who have visited this Coast.

The match will be thirty-six holes, with a round in the morning and another in the afternoon.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it has been all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts as long as a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every passage of the throat and lungs, loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat, tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaracolin, known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Keating

Keating, Feb. 22.—The members of the South Saanich Junior Institute were hostesses to the girls of the district at a Valentine party, held in the institute rooms at the Temperance Hall, on Saturday afternoon. There were about forty present.

Several contests, arranged by the Misses Edith Bickford and Doris Mitchell, were enjoyed. A word-puzzle contest was won by the Misses Blanche Sherring and Viola Hamilton. Miss Dorothy Butler guessed the identity of the mysterious lady, and a holiday-guessing competition was won by Misses Kathleen Pinder and Violet McNally.

A short musical programme was greatly enjoyed, the following taking part: Pianoforte, solo, Miss Janet Sherring; recitation, Miss Beatrice Butler; vocal solo, Miss Blanche Sherring; banjo solo, Mrs. W. Bates, accompanied at the piano by Miss Jean Russell.

At 8 o'clock the guests partook of a delicious tea, the table being prettily decorated with pussy willows, Valentine streamers and place cards.

The South Saanich Women's Institute held a military five hundred in the Temperance Hall on Saturday evening, with six tables of players taking part in the games. Mrs. Sherring, Mrs. Hafer and Mrs. E. T. Lawrie were hostesses for the evening and served refreshments after the game. First prize winners were Mrs. E. T. Lawrie, Miss Violet McNally, W. Hulme and Mr. Lacouliere.

NOT RESIGNING TWIGG REPLIES TO MACKENZIE

Victoria Member Reviews Gauthier Commission Finding in House Speech

Judgment of Mr. Justice Morrison, exonerating the Government from the Carlow-Gauthier charges, was assailed in the Legislature Tuesday by H. D. Twigg, sponsor of the evidence and the weight of the evidence.

With a detailed and solemn attack on the judgment of the royal commissioner, who investigated his charges, the Victoria Conservative member, coupled the assertion that if anyone should resign, as suggested by an Mackenzie of Vancouver, then it was not he. The judgment of the commissioner, he said, had severely censured not him but Mr. Speaker Buchanan, who good-naturedly had accepted blame which should have been placed elsewhere. On the whole, he said, he was satisfied with the outcome of the proceedings before Mr. Justice Morrison last year, as the people of British Columbia would make up their own minds on the whole matter.

"The charges," Mr. Twigg continued, "were bad enough. God knows they were bad enough, but what was infinitely worse was the manner in which they were conducted by the Government of British Columbia."

Attacking the events which led up to the Carlow-Gauthier charges, Mr. Twigg proceeded: "I am too old and have been too long in this country to have originated these charges out of a spirit of playfulness. The reason I made those charges I now propose to tell. When a more or less decent citizen, which I presume I am, is subjected to inquiry by sleuths of the Liquor Board, when my home is invaded to find out for the Government how much I know of certain matters, then it appears to me that there is a good deal that should be brought out. It is the Attorney-General who is entirely to blame for the making of the Carlow-Gauthier charges and the responsibility rests with no one else."

He went on to charge that the commission issued to Mr. Justice Morrison had not been in accordance with the decision of the House on the matter. The commission, as issued, he said, had not followed his charges and had introduced matters which he could not possibly prove.

After declaring again that the commission had been drawn in such a way that he was required to prove things which he had never charged, Mr. Twigg went on to reiterate his statement that he had never made any personal charges against members of the Government, and, to support this, read from Mr. Justice Morrison's judgment, which explained that the substance of the charge was simply that the liquor business through liquor agents had been used to secure party funds.

"Any person who reads the judge's decisions must come to this conclusion—censure, Mr. Speaker, I regret to say, was made about yourself and, in self-defence after what the fourth member for Vancouver (Mr. Mackenzie) has said about me, I must read the judgment."

He went on to read Mr. Justice Morrison's finding on Mr. Buchanan's connection with Gauthier. Among other things, the judge said: "I find Mr. Buchanan's dealings with Gauthier and Mr. Patterson were inconsistent with his duties as a trustee of the public and his interference in this matter tends to go a long way to giving credence to aspersions cast upon the administration of the Liquor Act which it would be affectation to pretend are not made."

"Honorable gentlemen opposite," Mr. Twigg proceeded, "must realize this fact that when such a finding is made against the Honorable Speaker, who, after all, did nothing more than introduce the man (Gauthier) to the Minister of Public Works (Hon. W. H. Sutherland)—that is all he did out of friendship—when it is found that it was the duty of Mr. Buchanan, as found by the judge, to tell the Attorney-General of transaction, the how much more was it the duty of the Minister of Public Works to tell his brother Minister, the Attorney-General?"

BLAMES SUTHERLAND

"A finding against one is a finding against both. The responsibility of the Minister cannot be shelved on the broad shoulders of Mr. Buchanan, who has good-naturedly accepted that position. It was his duty to tell the Attorney-General and because he failed to do so he is censured; how much more was it the duty of the Minister to have told his brother Minister, for, after all, he obtained the orders for the liquor. It was he (Dr. Sutherland) who introduced Gauthier to Mr. Speaker Buchanan of the Senate, and got him his orders."

"The judge didn't say I behaved myself so that I should resign," he declared. "But let me say this—if the fourth member for Vancouver and the Liberal Party are satisfied with the decision in the Gauthier case, I am equally satisfied from my point of view. I proved what I set out to prove and I have proved it to the satisfaction of the people of British Columbia."

To show that the public considered his charges proved, Mr. Twigg read from editorials in The Vancouver Province and The Vancouver Star.

NOT ATTACKING JUDGE

"The blame was put where it did not belong," he said, returning to the Morrison judgment. "Inferentially, the blame should be somewhere else. I have no intention of criticizing the learned judge. As a member of the bar, I would not think of doing so. I would not criticize, either, members of the bar who attended the inquiry, but I am entitled as a lawyer to hold the finding as against the evidence and the weight of the evidence in both these cases, and the people of the country know it."

In court of law, Mr. Twigg remarked, the jury had the final word after the lawyers had finished arguing.

"These matters are before the jury of the public of British Columbia today," he concluded, "and I say to the fourth member for Vancouver and to the whole Liberal Party that I am perfectly willing to leave it to the decision of the people as to whether they want me to resign."

D. R. POOLE TALKS TO LEADERS AT "Y"

National Boys' Work Secretary From Toronto Addresses Two Victoria Meetings

At two different meetings in Victoria, one at 6 o'clock in Temple Hall and the other at 8 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A., D. R. Poole, National Boys' Work Secretary of Canadian Y.M.C.A. with headquarters at Toronto, was the honored guest and principal speaker.

At the supper conference which was attended by leaders of the Y.M.C.A. and Trail Ranger Boys' Groups of the city, Poole spoke on the new aspects of religious education and the basic essentials of successful leadership.

"The years between fourteen and twenty," declared Mr. Poole, "are the most important in the development of youth and it is during these years that youth needs real Christian leadership and his interference in this matter tends to go a long way to giving credence to aspersions cast upon the administration of the Liquor Act which it would be affectation to pretend are not made."

Teeth so very white

YET...

they are only as Healthy as the Gums

SEEMINGLY safe with teeth so white, 4 out of 5 after forty, and thousands younger, find themselves victims of the disease of neglect—PYORRHEA.

This grim foe of health ignores the teeth and attacks the gums. So take this precaution: See your dentist every six months and use the dentifrice that does far more than keep teeth clean.

Every morning and every night, brush your teeth with Forhan's for the Gums.

As a dentifrice alone, you would prefer it. Without the use of harsh abrasives it restores teeth to natural whiteness and protects them against acids which cause decay.

And in addition, if used regularly and in time, it helps gums to resist Pyorrhoea by keeping them sound and healthy.

Get a tube of Forhan's. Use this dentifrice morning and night. Teach your children this good habit which will protect their health in years to come. Also message your gums daily with Forhan's, following directions in booklet that comes with tube. Two sizes—35¢ and 60¢.

well looked after and sixty free ferries," he said.

Mr. Philip touched on the paving improvements given Vancouver Island, and the Chamber of Commerce, a large capital adjacent to Sidney had been warranted and promised a sympathetic hearing by the Government to all representations. He closed by remarking that all should be thankful for the privilege of living in such a Province.

CIVIC SUPPORT

Publicity Commissioner George I. Warren responded to the toast to the City of Victoria, remarking that the people of Sidney have shown the citizens of larger communities the way to attain progress and stability by community co-operation. He congratulated Sidney on attainment of new residents of the type of maintenance of stability in industrial effort and stressed the successful operation, through slack times and prosperity, of a large lumber industry for eleven years. "You may rely upon it, Victoria is with you, you are the gateway of our city," he said.

A. Warrender proposed the toast to the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, declaring that body to be the hardest working public service organization of Vancouver Island. S. B. Fowler, chairman of the industrial group of the chamber, replying said Victoria would experience growth only as the surrounding country is developed. He suggested that the industrial group should be secondary to the agricultural group, development of farming to its fullest for eleven years.

J. J. White proposed a toast to the Sidney Board of Trade, remarking on the progress of the province of Sidney and district and thanked the members for loyal support.

"Your president was most cordially received by the B.C. Electric Company, the B.C. Telephone Company, the officials of the Canadian National Railway, the provincial and federal departments of public works and others at different times when taking up matters of importance to our district," he said.

"Many new residents were attracted to our district last year; perhaps we did not get quantity enough to suit some people, but we certainly got quality in our newcomers," he said.

"Important matters for consideration which we intended to handle include creation of interest in our community and to get our citizens to recognize the very great importance of co-operation and unity of purpose in our public service."

"Our efforts are going to be doubled this year on getting motor ferry connection with the mainland via an all Canadian route."

"The already a large wharf at Steveston and a terminus here in Sidney; the distance between is only thirty-six miles. Vancouver to Steveston is fourteen miles; Sidney to Vancouver is thirteen miles; the distance between the Canadian Pacific Railway and the British Columbia Ferry route, forty miles—shorter than the Bellingham route and sixty-eight miles shorter than the Anacortes route."

Mayor Carl Pendry of Victoria and Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., M.P., sent regrets on inability to attend.

PROVINCIAL ASSETS

The toast of the Province was replied to by Patrick Philip, Deputy Minister of Public Works. He reviewed the history of the Province, "with mountains to dwarf the Alps, and men to dwarf the mountains," and declared the road system of 17,000 miles unequalled in the Empire and one of the Province worth about $50,000,000.

"In addition we have over $11,000,000 invested in sixty-six miles of bridges," he said.

Similar progress was to be found in opening up the resources of the western provinces, and the Canadian per capita production of wealth last year was fifty per cent above that of the United States, he said.

HANDS OFF BUSINESS

British Columbia had not shown progress parallel to that of the East, much experimental legislation having handicapped business. That appears now to be at an end, both sides of the Legislature appear inclined to leave business alone to work its own way out. If that attitude continues this Province will go forward with leaps and bounds, and capital will pour in," he said.

NEW POLICY FORECAST

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.
Winnipeg, Feb. 22.—Wheat.—The wheat market gave further evidence today of a strong undercurrent. Liverpool cables came to 1/2 higher, being stronger than expected, which caused our market to open very firm, and gains of a full cent were made in all three future months, due to excellent buying by exporters and seaboard houses, while shorts were forced to cover. The May future touched 139 1/2, but at this level the demand was satisfied prices eased off slightly, but there was no pressure on the dips, offering again becoming very light and prices held firm, although the market was quiet the latter part of the day.

The cash market was very dull, and while offerings were extremely small, the demand was poor. The volume of export business worked over night could not be learned, but it was believed to be well over half million bushels, orders coming from both Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. Europe is taking Canadian wheat more freely, and after the opening of navigation it will not be surprising to see a big movement down the lake, while deliveries from farmers at that time may be much lighter than usual. Many believe that supplies in Europe have been allowed to reach very small figures, and that when supplies now float reach the other side a big demand will spring up.

At present there is no disposition on the part of exporting countries to offer cheap wheat, and prices are easily advanced every time the foreigner comes into the market to fill requirements. Much depends on the outcome of the winter wheat crop, and crop acres are to be expected during the next two or three weeks as conditions have been far from ideal, both in America and Europe. Country markets yesterday totaled 723,198 bushels, as against 492,073 bushels a year ago. Good buying again developed near the close, and the market closed around the top and one cent higher for the day. American markets were all closed today and little outside news was coming in. Coarse grains and meal markets were all firm and higher, and were influenced by the strength in wheat. There was a fair domestic demand for oats, a little export business in barley and low grade rye. Offerings light and under-grad to all markets firm. Oats closed 1/2 up to unchanged, barley 1/2 to 3/4 higher, rye 1/2 to 3/4 higher.

Flax.—This market gave a good account of itself and got moderate gains of 3/4. Crushers took small amounts and offering were light.

Mines Gossip

for Mining Fans

ANOTHER BIG COMPANY ENTERS BRITISH COLUMBIA

Entrance into British Columbia of another large international mining organization has resulted from the final closing of the deal here last night by J. H. Gillespie, president, whereby the W. H. Wooley interests of New Broad Street, London, took over control of the Terminus mine on the Upper Bear River. The Wooley people are large mining operators in South Africa, Mr. Gillespie announced, and their purchase of this Portland Canal property marks their first investment venture in Canada.

J. Ralston, of the E. P. Davis law firm of Vancouver, who completed the purchase here, said that his principals were starting work at once, ordering equipment and planning the mine. At the final meeting last night, at which the first payment was accepted by President Gillespie, Harry Heywood, who had been in charge of the mine, said that over 80,000 shares of Terminus stock had been liquidated in the last two weeks and that out of these funds all liabilities of the company is now turned over to the new owners in sound financial condition.

SILVER TIP PREPARING FOR WORK

Silver Tip directors report that their treasury shares have been selling so well in Eastern Canada and Vancouver at 40 cents, that the company now has a surplus of 100,000 shares. Arrangements will be made soon to take in all heavy supplies for the season's work over the snow, by way of the sleigh road constructed to the Big Missouri last year.

By the month of May drifting will be resumed on the fine showing of ore opened to a depth of 90 feet in the May P. vein, to be followed by driving two tunnels on the Bella Coola claim, and open cuts a claim for the purpose of cutting at depth two of the "dry one" zones that were showing up so well at the end of last season.

When snow conditions permit, extensions open cutting will again be done in order to trace the zones along their strike. With the information gained from these tunnels and open cuts a diamond drilling campaign can be inaugurated to advantage that will disclose something of tonnage possibilities.

PISTON HAS BEEN FOUND ON THE BELLA COOLA CLAIM

Piston has been found on the Bella Coola claim assaying 329 oz. in silver and 1 oz. in gold to the ton, and it is thought likely that ore of this type may be found in place this season as a result of the large amount of work to be done.

TORONTO MARKET FEELING BETTER

Toronto, Feb. 22.—As camels smell water, anyone nosing around the gossip corners of the street can smell a change in sentiment regarding the mining market. The worst news has been sprung. The Wright Hargreaves report and the Hollinger disaster capped the climax, coming almost simultaneously with the announced resignation of the American directors of O. Rand.

The market, says the wise-cracker, is dragging along the bottom. The wise-cracker buys first then tips his friends. It may take some time before you notice it though. When you tell this to the bears, they say "Bia."

The best indication that the worm has turned is the line of gossip you meet with. Good gossip isn't circulated if it likely to be wasted. Its starting to come out again. Wright Hargreaves is plugged at 4.50 you heard it said last night. Everyone admitted the report wasn't anything to write home about. Its saving grace was the statement of the president that the grade of ore they are getting now is better than the average of last year.

The street says it hears that McKimley Dargue, which is now an investment trust, were buyers of Teck Hughes at recent market levels.

A rumor is heard that Teck Hughes have started to move part of their ore dump and it is wondered if this is preparatory to the building of another mill unit. You also hear they are doing some diamond drilling at the north end of their property on something that looked good on top. There's a general epidemic of optimistic gossip going the rounds about Teck just now. Talk is heard of smashing big widths with long ore shoots and fearfully high values on the meterstick. News which everyone tells you is the best level they have so far had. Teck has been too good to too many people to stay unpopular for long.

Remove Blackheads

this easy way

Don't let unsightly blackheads mar your complexion and worry you. Here is a new way of removing them—painless, simple and effective.

Simply fill a cup with comfortably hot water and dip into it a teaspoonful of Radon Salts. Dip on the part of the face affected. After a few minutes' treatment wipe your face dry and then apply blackheads will have vanished. Lastly apply a little cold cream. Read this letter:

"I suffered from blackheads in the skin. I treated them as directed with Radon Salts, and to my great delight found that I could rub the blackheads out with a rough towel. Now I have not a single blackhead left."

The Radon way eliminates all painful "squeezing out." Your skin is left free of red blotches—smooth and healthy. Today ask your druggist for the economical 1/2-lb. pink package of Radon. It costs only five cents and tonight you'll be rid of bothersome blackheads.

Nelson Leads In Fire Prevention

Nelson, Feb. 22.—That Nelson, and not Prince Rupert, was entitled to the ranking position among British Columbia cities of 25,000 population and under in the matter of fire prevention standing was asserted yesterday by J. A. Thomas, provincial fire marshal. Mr. Thomas can not understand how Prince Rupert laid claim to first place. Nelson's fire loss in 1927 was only $8,000.

Prince Rupert in 1926 had a $200,000 fire when its mill burned, and in 1927 its fire loss dropped to $8,000.

TOLMIE NEEDED AT OTTAWA, SAYS TORY SPOKESMAN

Leader Required to Watch Liberal Goings-on, Twigg Explains to House

The real reason why Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative Party leader, does not come to British Columbia was revealed to the Legislature for the first time yesterday by H. D. Twigg, Conservative of Victoria. He announced to the astonished members that for the good of the people of British Columbia it was necessary for Dr. Tolmie to remain in Ottawa to watch the secret goings-on between the Mackenzie King and MacLean Governments. "It is fortunate for the people of British Columbia that Dr. Tolmie is in Ottawa," Mr. Twigg said. "There is a good deal of traffic going on between the Federal and Provincial Governments, and through Dr. Tolmie we are getting information on it."

The need of a careful watch of this kind, he said, was shown by the proceedings of the Martin Commission on railway lands, in which argument had been adjourned to be resumed publicly, and then all questions had been settled at Ottawa without public hearing.

GETTING INSIDE FACTS
It was useful for the Conservative Party also to get information of Pacific Great Eastern Railway negotiations, on the Oriental situation and the proposed transfer of the Alaskan Panhandle to Canada, Mr. Twigg said. This was being done through Dr. Tolmie, he stated.

"What are the Federal members doing?" asked H. F. Kergin, Liberal of Allan.

Mr. Twigg replied:

The Victoria member's budget speech, apart from his lengthy discussion of the Carlow-Gauthier charges, reported elsewhere in these columns, was devoted largely to an attack on Attorney-General Munnion's alleged political interference in the work of the Provincial Police. He quoted instances to prove that police officers who did their duty and arrested leading Liberals had been removed, while other officers who were active politically in Liberal Party interests were being retained.

"The Attorney-General," he said, "has been perfectly wild in the administration of the law."

URGES LAW TEST
Mr. Twigg urged that the legality of recent marketing legislation be tested, recalling the collapse of the fuel oil tax in the same way the Land Settlement Act was being questioned in the courts by a case in which the Government's defence was "almost immoral." The gasoline tax, under new legislation, he said, would be no more legal than it was before, while the turnover tax was being gravely questioned and might be eliminated. The Government also had been beaten in succession duty cases, he said, warning the Attorney-General to be more careful in framing legislation.

ATTACKS BOOKKEEPING
Operating losses on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway amounting to more than $2,000,000 had been charged in the Government's balance sheet as "deferred assets," said Mr. Twigg. He also criticized the Government's handling of superannuation funds, declaring that faith had not been kept with the civil servants, by reason of the fall in value of the Government to meet the contributions of the service in cash with equal amounts and establish a sinking fund.

Crowd Menaces Court and Trial Is Postponed

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 22.—Ford City police court building was stormed by 1,000 citizens of Polish and other foreign extraction yesterday afternoon when Peter Holitch, thirty-nine, alleged job fixer, was brought up for preliminary hearing. The trial was adjourned until March 2 at the Sandwich courthouse, after Magistrate W. A. Smith had looked out the window and noted the crowd. Officials feared a riot or an attempt to lynch the prisoner by hundreds of unemployed who claimed they had paid him $30 each for factory jobs which did not exist. Police suddenly left the town after collecting $3,500, police said, and was arrested last week in Montreal.

BIG AD. FIRM NOW IN HALIFAX

It is announced to-day that A. McKim Limited, General Advertising Agency, has further extended its coast to coast chain of branches by opening an office in Halifax on February 15.

This step indicates appreciation by Canada's largest advertising agency of the important place occupied by the Maritime Provinces in the industrial activity of the country.

The new office will be in charge of H. R. McDougall, who has had a number of years experience in the head office of the company at Montreal, developing advertising accounts and carrying out merchandising and advertising plans for manufacturers and others in a wide variety of businesses.

While A. McKim Limited has for several years operated six offices, it has been felt that the chain was not complete without a Maritime branch and the abundant signs of present and potential progress now apparent throughout the three Atlantic Coast provinces makes the present a most opportune time for the new branch to be inaugurated.

Such development in practically every line of industry carried on in the Maritime is in evidence, that the specialized council and service which the McKim organization is equipped to give is sure to be welcomed by Maritime province firms desiring further development of sales in their own and other provinces, and by business men in other parts of Canada who wish to secure a share of the splendid volume of business available in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Perspiration Odour is no respecter of Persons—or Seasons

Winter and Summer one perspires . . . everyone . . . from one to two pints daily, the doctors say.

One needn't be in a warm room, it may not be a sultry summer day, for sometimes excess perspiration is caused by emotion or plain nervousness.

But, whatever causes perspiration odour, no one need ever offend because of it . . . not while there is Lifebuoy Soap to be had practically everywhere.

Lifebuoy Soap used for face, hands and bath makes one sure of not offending. The creamy antiseptic lather not only cleanses but also purifies the pores and keeps them antiseptically clean and sweet from bath to bath.

Lifebuoy is orange red, the colour of its pure palm fruit oils . . . it costs no more than the toilet soap you are using now.

The freighter Cape, due at James Island February 26 will not arrive until the morning of February 28, King Bros. agents here, are advised. The Cape has a large shipment of nitrates for discharge at James Island from Chile.

The Blue Pannel liner Protesthaus, which docked yesterday afternoon from the Orient, brought raw silk and silk goods valued at approximately $4,920,000 for discharge at Vancouver. Cargo discharged here included 600 sacks of Japanese rice. There were two steerage passengers for this port and four for Vancouver.

With the Princess Royal on the Gulf Islands run, relieving the steamer Chatter, the Monday and Tuesday calls of the service at Shingle Bay have been discontinued until further notice. It was announced from the offices of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service this morning.

A Doctor Talks About Cascara

It is unfortunate that many people judge the thoroughness of a laxative by its violence. The salts that rush through the system may not even penetrate the film of poisonous matter that has coated the colon. A long list of drugs will "loosen the bowels" but what is the best way to CLEANSE them?

The world's best laxative is one that Mother Nature makes in her own laboratory. It is the bark of a tree, called CASCARA. The Indians used to chew this bark—and reach old age without a sick day. It is the best thing there is today, for any system; best for the blood. The most beneficial in its action on the bowels, of anything yet disclosed. For many reasons:

First of all, there is no HABIT formed from cascara. The bowels are not weakened, but strengthened by its occasional use. The occasions when one needs this aid grow less and less. Its influence is long-felt. You don't find yourself worse bound-up the day following. You do find the bowels more inclined to move of their own volition. The candy cascara that every drug store always has in stock is the ideal form of cascara. (Adv.)

THREE SHIPS AT YARROWS TO-DAY KEEP GANGS BUSY

After a very quiet month at the beginning of the year, Yarrows Limited shipbuilding and repair yards are now working at top speed with all hands employed.

The company is now working on two vessels, the Hudson's Bay Company's steamer Baychimo which is wintering at this port and the Dominion Government hydrographic survey ship.

Both of these ships are undergoing their annual overhauls at the Esquimalt plant.

This afternoon the Canadian Pacific coastal steamer Princess Victoria will be taken to Yarrows where a considerable amount of repairs will be done to her iron work.

Other shipyards are keeping fairly busy. The Victoria Motorboat Works is engaged in the construction of a new work tug for the Esquimalt drydock and several men are engaged on this work.

The Victoria Machinery Depot have the Canadian Pacific steamer Chatter out of the water for a considerable time, also working on the boilers of the Pacific Salvage Company's steamer Salvage King at the salvage company's wharf.

The Mordue-Wood Engineering Company released the fishing boat Broad, yesterday, after cleaning and painting and tailshaft repairs. Turple's are doing considerable work with scows.

Mr. Farris Tuesday alleged that work in dispute at Mile 13.7 north of Lillooet had been done to the satisfaction of Dr. McMillan, P.G.E. engineer, but that the latter refused to certify for overhaul which had been necessary in moving the dirt from the cut to the fill. Counsel maintained that the refusal was wrong and that the engineer was acting on instructions from the railway manager.

Defence counsel contended that the engineer had been appointed under the contract to settle the dispute and that the engineer's decision was final between the parties.

Hearing of this case is expected to continue for several days.

Wellington, N.Z., Feb. 22—A successful whaling season ended tragically for the Norwegian whaler C. A. Larsen, which struck a reef yesterday when entering Patterson Inlet, Steward Island. It was estimated that oil valued at about $1,500,000 has already escaped into the sea because of the bursting of eight of the twelve tanks of the vessel whose present position is serious.

Seattle, Feb. 22—Bringing the first catch of halibut of the 1928-29 season, the Repeal and the White Star arrived here to-day.

Both vessels reported fair catches. The Seattle Fishing Vessel Owners' Association yesterday announced the establishment of a branch office at Ketchikan, Alaska, necessitated by the large number of Seattle fishermen operating in Alaskan waters who do not return to Seattle during the season.

To-morrow's Horoscope

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1928

This is one of the rarely fortunate days, according to astrology, and favorable to development and fruition of talent. This is a rule favorable to inventions and it is foretold that machinery which revolutionizes modern life is to be substituted for present-day appliances of many sorts. There is a sign of greater promise to engineers and to builders of houses as well as builders of bridges.

This year should be an auspicious time for pushing plans that contemplate record-making achievements. While the stars promise immense enterprises and daring feats, the impulse toward supreme activities will be reflected in men and women who will attain to high ambitions. This is a happy wedding day since it presages persistent loyalty and material success. Engagements to marry made under this direction of the stars should be most lucky, for wisdom as well as admiration enters into this day's attraction of the sexes. Merchants and manufacturers are well directed while this configuration lasts and they should be able to count on a year unusually large profits. Nurses and all who minister to the wants of others should benefit from the aspects to-day. At this time the human voice is likely to receive attention and there will be unusual effort toward improvement in speech, for the stars affecting diction are read as strongly benefic. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of adventures, pleasures and profits. Children born on this day probably will be extremely clever in business. Many subjects of this sign are orators as well as executives. (Copyright, 1928)

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly's Radio

(Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

By Howard R. Garis

"Rat-a-tat-tat!" sounded a knock on the door of the den where the Bob Cat lived.

"Who's there?" snarled the bad chap with the silly little tail.

"I am. Don't be cross," whined the Fox. "I came to tell you of a fine way I just thought of to catch Uncle Wiggly."

"Don't talk to me about that rabbit!" howled the Bob Cat. "I never want to see him again."

"Why not?" asked the Fox. "I'd like to see him right now, after you and I have caught him. I want some nibbles off his ears. Why don't you want to see him again?"

"Because," looked here," exclaimed the Bob Cat. "Opening the door for the Fox, the Bob Cat showed his tail.

"Why, it's got a hole in it!" howled the Fox in surprise.

"Of course!" snarled the Bob Cat. "Uncle Wiggly made that hole in my tail by throwing an icicle spear at me when I was hiding in the bushes this morning waiting to catch him."

"I wonder what's on the air," murmured Mr. Longears

"Why didn't you hide so he wouldn't see you?" asked the Fox. "I fear you are not sly enough, Mr. Bob Cat."

"I thought I was well hidden," mewed the Cat with the silly, little bunch of fuzz over his hind legs. "But my tail must have stuck up. Anyhow that rabbit threw a spear at it and I had to run away. It pained me so much. So that's why I say don't talk to me about Uncle Wiggly!"

"Oh, but I must talk of him," whispered the Fox. "I have just thought of the finest way to catch him, if you'll help me."

"How?" asked the Bob Cat, tenderly touching one paw to his icicle-speared tail. "What can we do?"

"Looking around the den to make sure no rabbits were hiding there, though there was small chance of that, the Fox whispered:

"To-night Uncle Wiggly is going to listen over the radio. He always falls asleep after he has sat for a time in his easy chair listening to what's on the air. I've watched him through the window many nights, of late, and I know just what he does. Always, after he has listened to the radio for a while, the old gentleman rabbit falls asleep."

"Well, what of it?" asked the Bob Cat.

"Lots of it," answered the Fox. "As soon as he falls asleep you and I will sneak in through the window and catch him. It's the best plan ever thought of. It's sure to work."

"Maybe," sighed the Bob Cat, tenderly feeling of his icicle-speared tail. "It's worth trying. I'll help you."

"Come on, then!" said the Fox. "It's night, now. Uncle Wiggly will be tucked in for the different stations. We'll hide in the bushes and watch. As soon as he falls asleep, when he listens to the bedtime music, that will be our chance."

Soon enough Uncle Wiggly, as he did every evening, also on this particular night, sat in his easy chair in front of the radio.

"Well, I wonder what's on the air?" murmured Mr. Longears. "Oh, no, hum!" he yawned. "I'm sleepy! Being out with Jackie and Peetle, throwing icicle spears at the snow-man made me sleepy, I guess. But how that Bob Cat ran when I stuck the spear in his tail!" chuckled the rabbit. "Ha! ha! how he did run!"

"Yes, and you'll run when I get after you!" snarled the Bob Cat who, hiding the bushes with the Fox, under the rabbit's window, heard what Mr. Longears was saying.

Uncle Wiggly turned the knobs of his radio and soon, out of the loud speaker, was coming soft music.

"Ah, this is lovely," murmured the bunny gentleman. "It is so soothing. I wish I could play like that!"

He leaned back in his easy chair. More and more softly the music played. Uncle Wiggly's head began to nod.

"See! What did I tell you!" whispered the Fox to the Bob Cat. "He will soon be fast asleep and then we can creep in and catch him. Isn't this a good trick?"

"It seems so," whispered the Bob Cat. "But you never can tell what Uncle Wiggly will do. It looks as if we might catch him."

Softer and softer played the music. Uncle Wiggly's head nodded more and more. His eyes closed and then the Fox and the Bob Cat began creeping toward the window. Did they get Uncle Wiggly? No, indeed! But how they were fooled in such a queer story that I must wait until to-morrow night to tell you. Then, in case the grocery boy will leave a dozen eggs for the pussy cat to play marbles with, I'll tell you about Uncle Wiggly's electric light.

Mothers:

Next to the natural laxative from a mother's breast, a plain, old-fashioned preparation is always best for keeping baby's little digestive tract clean and sweet. When your little one doesn't eat, or can't sleep, give him a few drops of plain Castoria. It's purely vegetable, you know. Any doctor will tell you that it is utterly harmless to the youngest infant. It is sweet to the taste, and sweet in the little stomach. Yet its gentle influence is soon felt all through the tiny system. Not even castor oil can compete with Castoria and how much better it is to use this milder means of regulating a baby! Never give baby paregoric or similar opiates, because, a few drops of Castoria are just as soothing, and no harm is done. That's the beauty of using pure Castoria; you can give it just as often as you discover any sign of colic, constipation, or diarrhea—or those times when you don't know just what it is that has caused an upset. Only get the genuine Castoria—bearing Fletcher's signature. It isn't expensive, and with every bottle comes the book, "Care and Feeding of Babies"—worth its weight in gold to every mother or prospective mother.

"SCARAMOUCHE" AT ROYAL NEXT WEEK

Rafael Sabatini's Famous Play to Be Presented By Martin Harvey Company

Sir John Martin Harvey and his London Company will present Rafael Sabatini's play, "Scaramouche" at the Royal Victoria Theatre here on Monday, February 27, for three days with a matinee on Wednesday.

It was with this production that Sir John scored his recent significant London triumph. It is the story of Andre Moreau, impersonated by Sir John, a young aristocrat, who seeks to avenge the death of his friend at the hands of an unscrupulous aristocrat of the old regime. He disguises himself as "Scaramouche" with the troupe of mountebanks around whom the action centres—in this play to better attain his ends, but the extremists surround him and he is compelled to adopt their creed.

This role of romance and gallantry is one in which Sir John Martin Harvey's flare for emotional acting finds full scope.

The final act is an unrelenting contest of continuous surprises to all the characters in turn, and through it runs a vein of romance which turns swiftly from "Climene," a lady of the troupe of mountebanks to "Aline" whom Andre, an unacknowledged love-child loves passionately, but illicitly.

The drama is a gripping one, seething with mystery and has the bright historical coloring of the French Revolution.

Sir Henry Irving's version of "The Lyons Mail" by Charles Reade, will be the offering for the last three days of the same week.

FAMOUS SINGERS HERE IN MARCH

Ever since the phenomenal success of the English Singers of London in their first American concert given in New York two years ago, Victoria music lovers have been importunate in their requests for an appearance in this city. The Ladies' Musical Club will present this unique organization of ensemble singers, perhaps the greatest of its kind in the world, at the Royal Victoria, Wednesday evening, March 7.

The English Singers have repeated the success of their triumphant debut, with their twentieth New York recital sold out and with the Town Hall jammed to the doors, and have started on their first transatlantic tour with every date filled far in advance of the departure from London last summer. They gave ninety concerts in twenty-two weeks in America, and evoked such uniform enthusiasm that on many instances it was impossible to obtain admission days before the concert.

Mail orders are being filled now at the Royal for the English Singers, with tickets at slight reduction to schools and clubs for twenty or more on application to Fletcher Bros.

Norman Wilks Has Great Reception At Calgary Concert

At a recent reappearance of Norman Wilks, the great English pianist at Calgary, he was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm. Receptions were held in his honor and his audience included most distinguished Calgarians. One critic says: "With complete absence of ostentation or aggressive virtuosity he possesses the peculiar gift of presenting musical pictures in the most intimate way." His Brahms number received the most cordial outburst of applause. "The Waldstein sonata—most pianists avoid this—was a supreme test of digital efficiency, constructive musicianship as to demonstration of classical form and endurance." "Calgary should be grateful to him for his wonderfully vivid musical impressions."

Norman Wilks is due to play here on Friday March 2, and during his visit to the city, will be entertained under distinguished auspices. The sale of tickets is now open at Fletcher Bros. There is a special rate for all music students.

HOUSE IS TOLD OF TRANQUILLE WORK

The sixth annual report of the Tranquille Sanatorium for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1922, was presented to the Legislature yesterday by the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, provincial secretary. The report shows that a total of 368 patients received treatment during the year. The average population was 223. As in previous reports, it was noticeable that a large percentage of patients, namely, 56.62, were far advanced cases, while the incipient cases were only 6.62 per cent. The difference is remarkable and the result not altogether fortunate, says the report. Had these far-advanced cases been admitted during the early stages of the disease, cures might have resulted, whereas very often in advanced cases little can be done beyond alleviating the patient's suffering; it is stated. On the other hand, more advanced cases are the most dangerous.

The Sooke players were: Mary McKay (captain), Neil McKay, Wilbur Rhoads, Chumy McPison and Tom McLeod. The next game will be played at Otter Point on Wednesday, February 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Elsie Smith of Victoria, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith.

AT THE THEATRES

NOTED EUROPEAN ACTOR IN PICTURE NOW AT VARIETY

Paul Wegener, the noted German actor, makes his first appearance in a picture to be produced by a U.S. company in Rex Ingram's production of "The Magician" for Metro-Goldwyn. This picture is showing at the Variety Theatre this week. Wegener has for many years been a leading stage and screen star of the Central Powers, and scored a great success in the U.S. when his production of "The Golem" was released several years ago. Wegener wrote this story, directed and enacted the title role. At the Capitol Theatre he has even greater part than he had in the "Golem."

"HELEN OF TROY" HAS FEATURES OF AN UNUSUAL TYPE

No motion picture is complete without an announcement concerning its unusual features and statistics. The features of First National's "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," now showing here at the Capitol Theatre are:

It is the first appearance in a U.S. picture of Maria Corda, noted European actress who plays the role of the beautiful Helen, and it is the first appearance in many years of Lewis Stone without his moustache.

More than 4,000 extras appear in the picture, although it must be added in the interests of truth, never all at once.

On the stage at the Capitol Theatre the management offers the Hanu Hawaiian Trio, in a programme of dreamy tunes from Hawaii. This trio is proving to be one of the season's outstanding novelties. Lucy and Anita, the noted South American dance artists present a specialty dance presentation. The Capitol Concert Orchestra will also be heard playing their usual special overture under the able leadership of Al Prescott.

MASTERS SEVERAL LANGUAGES DURING CAREER ON SCREEN

The motion picture is the universal language, but to speak the language universally one must know many languages.

So says Lars Hanson, famous Swedish actor, who has mastered his fifth language—English—in the pursuit of his screen career.

He uses them all, from Swedish in "Captain Salvation," the Cosmopolitan production now playing at the Columbia Theatre, to English in "Private Life" at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios where he is under contract.

GAS STATION CHAIN HELPS POCKET BOOK OF LOUISE DRESSER

Louise Dresser, who plays the leading feminine role in "White Flannels," the Warner Bros. production, at the Playhouse Theatre to-day, runs a chain of gas stations in Southern California as a sideline to her acting. Every few months she adds another gas station to the list.

"Business is a delightful diversion from screen work," says Miss Dresser, "and, besides its value as recreation, it gives one such a fine chance for studying the psychology of business men, tourists and so on."

"Many of my stage and screen friends have made business ventures. The money people in probably real estate. Others have been successful in raising silver foxes."

FORMER OFFICERS OF CZAR PLAYED IN DOMINION PICTURE

Former Russian officers, who fled from their own country with the revolution that upset the Czar's power, tasted old days again and the thrill of court life in a remarkable ceremony at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, when the famous Royal Steeple Chase, in which the Czar used to review the horsemanship of his officers, was staged as a thrilling detail of "Love," spectacular film version of Tolstol's "Anna Karenina," at the Dominion Theatre.

John Gilbert was one of the principal riders in the affair, but many of the riders were ex-officers of Russia, now playing screen roles in Hollywood. General Michael Plehinski, once of the Cuirassiers, General Theodore Lodi, formerly of the Imperial Guard, and several lesser ranking officers, were in the affair.

New Brunswick Lady Suffered With Pains in Back and Has Not Been Troubled Since

Blackville, N.B., Feb. 22 (Special).—Mrs. J. Lynch, a resident of this place, relates her experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills in the following brief letter. "The Big Parade" Another Big Film Dominion Next Week

No more whole-souled appreciation of "The Big Parade," which comes to the Dominion Theatre next week has been found in any other section of the world than in Canada where picture was acclaimed alike by English and French newspapers as the greatest historical epic ever made for the films. La Presse, Montreal's big newspaper, has "The Big Parade" as the most appreciated by every friend of France for its portrayal of Melisande as a magnificent tribute to the noble qualities of the Frenchwoman in the World War, and the leading English newspaper, The Montreal Star, stated that on the opening night the house "rocked with laughter or was tense with thrills or shaken by emotional memories as the story unfolded. A romance well and gracefully told. Humor of an irresistible kind. A vast panorama of the war as it was fought, are some of the other characterizations by The Star. In Toronto also the picture received great acclaim. It will rank in screen history as one of the most popular films that ever toured the 3,600-mile breadth of the great Dominion.

INTERNATIONAL ENTRY LIST AT NEXT FESTIVAL

Entries to Be Received From Across the International Border Line

At the recent meeting of the directors of the Victoria Musical Festival it was decided that the slogan to be adopted in connection with the coming festival to be held here would be "The International Festival of the Pacific Northwest." It is pointed out that the Victoria competitions are the only ones in British Columbia open to organizations and individuals from the other side of the line. It is a well known fact that Vancouver Island is richly endowed with musical talent which can hold its own with that from other parts of Canada and the United States so that there is no residence or other clause barring contestants from points outside of British Columbia. The festival committee hope in this way to do their part in fostering the spirit of friendship and mutual understanding which exists on both sides of the line.

In this connection it is announced that among other entries received to date is one from a girls' high school choir at Port Angeles which should add a great deal of interest to the girls' choir class. Several entries have been received from the United States side which should also result in entries.
